HOMES OF WASHINGTON.
Joseph I. Keefe Lectures on Mount Vernon and Other Estates.

"Homes of George Washington" was the subject of a stereopticon lecture given by Joseph I. Keefe in Mount Vernon Place Southern Methodist Church last night, when scenes upon Washington's estate at Mount Vernon and upon other estates which he often visited were shown.

Mr. Keefe paid particular attention to Washington's three brothers and two sisters and brought out the fact that the last sister, Mildred, lived but eighteen months. The list included Miss Betty Washington, who married Col. Jennings Lewis of Virginia; Samuel and Charles Washington, who lived at Charles Town, Va.; the city being named after the latter, and John Augustine Washington.

Both Ankles Are Sprained.
William Shields, colored, of 1915 10th

Chamber of Commerce Criticizes Hospital Bill.
CARE OF INSANE PATIENTS Resolution Calls Upon Commissioners to Delay Payment.
BETTER MAIL ARRANGEMENTS WITH Eastern Shore Demanded—Brisk Discussion of Non-Attendance.

A resolution in effect urging the board of District Commissioners not to take affirmative action on a law passed by Congress directing the payment into the Treasury of the United States of $700, 500,000, represented as arrears in payment of charges for indigent patients in the Government Asylum for the Insane from 1881 to 1911, was referred to committee by the Chamber of Commerce last night.

The meeting was the first of the autumn. The resolution was offered by C. C. Lancaster, and was passed as he had prepared it. The subject occasioned a prolonged and vehement debate.

Criticism of the failure of members to attend meetings of committees, referred to by John Dolph, "not," which he hoped the press would not put into print, was the occasion of conflict between him and William E. Shannon and Julius I.
Peyser.

Mr. Shannon accepted Mr. Dolph's explanation and apology. Mr. Peyser would not, and insisted upon his censure of non-attendance. His did not make a confession made by Mr. Dolph only went to prove the case. He also urged the newspapers to print Dolph's "not," and nothing else of the controversy.

Facilitation of Mail Service.
A resolution was adopted, following the report of Mr. Shannon upon the Eastern Shore Short Line, a water route connecting the eastern shore of Maryland with Annapolis, requesting the Postmaster General to take measures to facilitate the mail service to the eastern shore. Mr.
Shannon related the present situation, stating that failure to catch the mails sometimes delays delivery for twenty-four hours, after mailing from Washington, while five hours would accomplish delivery by utilizing the new line.

D. Kaufman, chairman of the special committee charged with arranging for the entertainment of the delegates to the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce, recently held in Boston, who are touring the west and bound this way, outlined the program of entertainment provided and urged a big attendance of members of the organization at the reception to be held in honor of the visitors in the Pan-American building next Monday evening.

The delegates are to be shown around the city Sunday and Monday, into all the public buildings, the Library of Congress and the White House. They are to be taken to Mount Vernon in the afternoon, and to the city of Washington in the morning.

A report of general activity on the part of the committee on manufactures was made by Robert H. Harper. He described the good roads result at Chain bridge effected from the expenditure of $100,000, and the fact that the result was a commercial success. He described the good roads result at Chain
$100,000, and the fact that the result was a commercial success.

Mr. Kaufman called attention to the absence of a quorum, but withdrew the motion upon the general suggestion that those present be asked to do business and that the business be done as set forth by President Oyster.

Mr. Kaufman, after detailing the plan for the entertainment of the delegates to the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce, regretted his own inability to be present and urged members of the Chamber of Commerce to do their utmost to make a good showing at the reception committee for Thursday evening.

The result of a meeting with representatives of boards of trade and chambers of commerce of Maryland to consider the claims of the Eastern Shore Short Line to special indorsement and encouragement was presented by Mr. Shannon. He stated that he had acted as committee, as his associates had found it impossible to give their attention to the subject. He spoke in high praise of the enterprise, stating that it cut off two hours in time and $1 in travel expense from Washington to the eastern shore, as compared with the old route by way of Baltimore.

Explaining the mail difficulties, and declaring that letters which missed the direct mail often had to go by way of Wilmington, and sometimes were not delivered under a full day's time, he urged the resolution asking the Postmaster General to facilitate the mail service.

Mr. Shannon expanded upon the general attractiveness of the eastern shore.
He declared it to be populous, prosperous and healthful, and an excellent market for whatever Washington has to sell. He also stated that the Pennsylvania railroad was about to inaugurate a sale of lands to points on the eastern shore in conjunction with the short line system.

A telegram from D. J. Callahan expected to arrive at the meeting, as he was in New York on important business. Thanks for courteous attention to his case were extended to the committee. Mr. Callahan, a visitor to Washington, last week, was expressed by Dr. Adams, under whose guidance he is touring America.

Mr. Lancaster's Resolution.
Mr. Lancaster then brought up his resolution regarding the payment of alleged arrears, which reads as follows:
"Resolved, That the Washington Chamber of Commerce, in public meeting assembled this 8th day of October, 1912, That we earnestly request the honorable Commissioners of the District of Columbia to postpone any action on the claim in the sundry civil bill approved August 21, 1912, providing that the sum of $700,500.00 of the District revenues be paid to the Treasury of the United States on account of the maintenance of indigent patients in the Government Asylum for the Insane, from the District of Columbia in excess of the number charged to and paid for by said District during the fiscal years 1881 to 1911, inclusive, until the next session of Congress, when this chamber will petition Congress to repeal this provision and direct a proper accounting of the books of the District officials and the books of the Government Hospital for the Insane, as requested by the auditor, the honorable Commissioners and the President of the United States in a special message to the Sixty-second Congress."

"He it further resolved, That this resolution be referred to the committee on law and legislation for investigation and report, and that a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the president of this chamber to the honorable Commissioners of the District of Columbia for their favorable action."

At considerable length Mr. Lancaster explained how the provision had been tacked on the sundry civil bill in charge of Frank Williams, colored, while on the floor of the House. He stated that the declaration of Dr. White, in charge, that the money was owing to the hospital and was a just debt, and, without hearing either before that committee or before the Senate committee, had been made law.

Commissioners Not Consulted.
He recalled that the District Commissioners, not having been sent for to explain, forwarded to the President a statement by Auditor Tweedale, questioning the justice of the charge, and declaring a long investigation and audit of the books would be necessary for the purpose of checking up. The President transmitted the statement to Congress as a special message.

It was the contention of the auditor and of Mr. Lancaster that the appropriation of funds of the District of Columbia to meet this charge was made on exparte evidence, and that justice demanded a thorough sifting of the facts.
Mr. Lancaster indicated that the balance claimed was made up of charges for indigent patients not residents of the District of Columbia, but who came from elsewhere, and that their keep was not properly chargeable to the District of Columbia.

The friendship of Representative Ben Johnson, chairman of the District of Columbia committee of the House, was called into question by Mr. Lancaster.
He abandoned this position when he was asked to admit that the measure in discussion had not originated in that committee.

Discussed by Members.
A number of members present were anxious to appear before the committee with reference to committee. Mr. Pizer made the remark, which afterward called out Mr. Dolph's protest, that the reference to committee might find the committee as dilatory as that headed by Mr. Shannon, which had held no meetings, and as Mr. Pizer saw it, had compelled Mr. Shannon to act.

Chapin Brown, Frederick C. Handy and Mr. Dolph spoke in favor of the committee of the resolution. Mr. Brown tion without further study would appear
